SCOPE OF WORKPurpose

In 2023, Tourism Grading Council of South Africa (TCGSA) reviewed its business model to determine areas of improvement and strategic improvement.

The purpose of this Request for Quote is to procure a consultant who is able to review the strategic requirements and develop a supporting operational change management proposal.

This will require recommendation and assessment of the business unit's target operating model; revenue model; new business requirements and legislative requirements.

About TGCSA

Per Act No. 3 of 2014: Tourism Act, 2014 the Tourism Grading Council is established.

1. The Council must implement and manage the national grading system for tourism contemplated in section 28 of the Act.
2. The Minister of Tourism oversees the functioning of the Council and the Council is in this respect accountable to the Minister for the proper implementation and management of the national grading system.

Background

The revised TGCSA business strategy seeks to expand the categories of quality assurance within the tourism sector, optimize profitability and ensure quality assurance is delivered across the tourism sector.

The Business Problem:

To increase the relevance of TGCSA to the tourism sector and consumers, there is a requirement to implement key strategic changes to make the business a critical partner to both parties. The business has reviewed the business strategy and now requires a well-considered operational model to implement the requisite business changes.

Business RequirementThe areas for business consultation include but not limited to:

1. Target Operating model
 - a. Review of current business model and strategic business model
 - b. Operational efficiencies
