BUSINESS CHALLENGE

The SANCB would like to launch exhibition registration for Meetings Africa 2025 for exhibitors and buyers. In order to be able to execute the hosted buyer vetting function, an external vetting agency is required to be sourced. SANCB has opted to procure the services of a Vetting Agency in anticipation of the appointment of a fully-fledged exhibition management company, just for the 2025 iteration of the show.

WHAT IS NEEDED?

The South Africa National Convention Bureau is looking to appoint an agency to assist with the qualification of international hosted buyer applicants for Meetings Africa 2024. The period of the appointment commences in November 2024 until the event takes place from 24 February 2025-26 February 2025.

The service provider will be responsible for the qualification of all international hosted buyer applicants outside Africa. The number of applicants is expected to be between 500 - 600 based on the number of applicants for 2024 . The service provider is not required to source buyers and not required to qualify buyers within Africa. Applicants are primarily sourced from SANCB and SAT offices, through market promotions as well as industry partners.

The primary source markets of international applicants in 2024 were:

- The Asia Pacific
- Europe
- The Americas
- Middle East
- Australia
- Africa

The applicants are related to the corporate meetings, incentive sector, associations and NGOs.

The applicant profile must include:

1. Decision-Making Authority: Buyers should have the authority to make purchasing decisions or significantly influence them.
2. Budget Responsibilities: Participants often need to manage a budget for meetings, events, or travel, ensuring they have the financial backing for potential purchases.

4. Engagement Commitment: Often, buyers are required to commit to a set number of pre-scheduled appointments with suppliers during the event.
5. Industry Relevance: Buyers typically come from sectors relevant to the meetings and events industry, such as corporate, association, or non-profit organizations.
6. Past Attendance: Previous participation in similar business events/trade shows may be considered, indicating a track record of engagement in the industry.
7. Geographic Diversity: Organisers often seek a mix of attendees from various geographic regions to enhance networking opportunities.

Vetting Agency Core Competencies:

A hosted buyer vetter should possess a blend of expertise and skills to ensure that the right buyers are selected for the program. Key areas of expertise include:

1. Industry Knowledge: Familiarity with the meetings and events industry, including trends, key players, and emerging markets.
2. Buyer Qualification: Experience in assessing the qualifications of potential buyers, including understanding their purchasing power, decision-making processes, and organizational needs.
3. Networking Skills: Strong interpersonal skills to engage with potential buyers, understanding their objectives and how they align with what the show offers.
4. Analytical Skills: Ability to evaluate applications based on specific criteria and make informed decisions on which buyers to host.
5. Relationship Management: Skills to build and maintain relationships with buyers, suppliers, and stakeholders, ensuring a smooth experience for all parties involved.
6. Cultural Competence: Awareness of and sensitivity to the diverse backgrounds of international buyers, enhancing inclusivity and understanding in the vetting process.

9. Experience in lead research and qualification across key markets.
10. Possess Expertise In:
 - Destination Marketing Strategic Planning

Vetting Process

1. Buyers will apply for participation via the trade show platform.
2. The vetting agency will segment applications by region and appoint resources per market/region
3. Applications accompanied by supporting documents and company information will need to be verified by the vetting agent
4. The vetting agency will be required to contact buyers where necessary as part of the verification process.
5. Once the buyer is vetted by the vetting agency, the buyer will be vetted by the SANCB and then approved or declined.

Reporting

1. Provide regular updates on the status of applicants via online meetings and emails.
2. Provide feedback on the approval process and recommendations for its future development
3. Provide a mid-term and end-term report summarizing results of qualifying process and recommendations for the future.
