8. BUSINESS CASE AND SCOPE OF WORK

South African Tourism's Executive Committee and Senior Management regularly engage with the media as official spokespersons for the organisation. These engagements include interviews, press briefings, crisis communication, stakeholder announcements, live broadcasts and digital media engagements across local and international platforms.

Given the evolving media landscape and the increasing demand for authentic, credible and confident leadership communication, it is essential that executives are equipped with the practical skills required to effectively represent the organisation in high-pressure media environments.

South African Tourism therefore seeks to appoint a suitably qualified service provider to deliver a comprehensive executive media training programme that combines theory with practical, on-camera experience in a realistic broadcast environment.

Scope of Work:

The appointed service provider will be required to design and facilitate a one-day executive media training programme for approximately 7 members of South African Tourism's Executive and Senior Management Team.

The training will be delivered as one-day sessions, with participants split into two groups (4 and 3 participants respectively). The sessions will be conducted on separate dates, to be confirmed by South African Tourism, based on the availability of the executives. The training dates will not be scheduled on consecutive days.

REQUEST FOR QUOTATION

SOUTH AFRICAN TOURISM

The successful bidder must be sufficiently flexible to accommodate the scheduling requirements of the Executive and Senior Management Team while ensuring a consistent training experience across both sessions.

The programme should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- A professional television or broadcast studio environment with cameras, lighting and interview simulation equipment.
- Understanding how the media and newsroom environment operates, including news values and editorial decision-making.
- Preparing for television, radio and digital media interviews.
- Message development and effective spokesperson techniques.
- Managing difficult, unexpected and hostile questions during interviews.
- Crisis communication and media engagement during reputational issues or emergencies.
- Understanding the impact of social media on traditional media coverage and reputation management.
- Practical on-camera interview simulations followed by individual coaching and feedback.
- Best practice techniques for maintaining confidence, credibility and composure during media engagements.
- Dress code for TV interviews.

The successful bidder will also be expected to provide:

- An experienced lead facilitator with extensive media and executive spokesperson training experience.
- All training materials and participant guides.
- Individual feedback and coaching for each participant.
- A post-training report highlighting observations and recommendations for future development.
