TABLE D: SCOPE OF WORK

1. Background

South African Tourism have partnered with Lufthansa's Miles & More loyalty program this year at the annual Community Awards Flight Event. The Lufthansa Miles & More club members are important to the airline and these customers are high net worth and loyal members to their national airline. Lufthansa creates an exclusive opportunity every year to these high net worth members and their travel companions, where they are able to redeem their miles for an unforgettable experience in unique and authentic destinations.

South African Tourism are thrilled that Lufthansa has chosen Cape Town again (it was the inaugural destination) and this trip will include an on-ground get-together event at Cape Point Vineyards in Noordhoek on Sunday November 22, 2026. This is where the Welcome Sustainability Village will be setup at this event.

South African Tourism will host a Welcome Sustainability Village where a maximum of 10 local (upmarket) vendors (crafters/artists/small businesses) will have a platform to showcase their unique cultural and heritage products to this captive market. And with this in mind, the bidder does NOT have to source these 10 vendors, as the audience is a specific high disposable income target segment and therefore the final approved list of vendors will be provided by South African Tourism to the successful bidder.

2. Objective – Welcome Sustainability Village

The primary objective of the South African Tourism Welcome Sustainability Village will serve as a vibrant, engaging platform that showcases eco-friendly, environmentally responsible, and authentically South African (Cape Town & Western Cape) products during the event at Cape Point Vineyards. The aim is to promote sustainable living practices by highlighting locally sourced, high-end quality, ethically produced goods that reflect South Africa's rich cultural heritage and commitment to environmental stewardship.

3. Implementation Approach ("The How")

The implementation approach of this platform will be in the form of a shop-style exhibition at the venue (Cape Point Vineyards), where members can interact directly with the vendors and learn about their products as well as an opportunity to share their unique stories. There will be approximately 400 Lufthansa Miles & More members and to encourage purchases, each member will each receive a voucher (ZAR200) that can be used towards buying any products from the Welcome Sustainability Village. The venue can only accommodate a maximum of 10 vendors for the Welcome Sustainability Village event on the Sunday November 22, 2026. Each participating vendor profile will be shared in advance with Lufthansa, so that the members know who they are supporting and the positive impact their purchases have.
